ALEXIS VENECHANOS HEAD COACH FOURTH SEASON, MARYLAND '03

Alexis Venechanos enters her fourth season at the helm of the Ohio State women's lacrosse program in 2013-14. In her three prior campaigns, she has led the Buckeyes to appearances in the ALC semifinals and to double-digit victories in each of them.

In addition, she assumed the role as head coach of the Canadian national team, leading them for the first time in the North America Challenge Cup in Summer 2012. In 2013, she guided team Canada to a second-place finish in her first World Cup as head coach.

Venechanos (pronounced: ven-eh-CHAN-ohs) was named the second head coach of the OSU lacrosse program July 1, 2010, after spending four years as the head coach at Massachusetts following a three-year stint as assistant coach Northwestern and a successful playing career at Maryland.

"The Ohio State University has a phenomenal reputation both academically and athletically and I am honored to be named its next women's lacrosse coach," Venechanos said upon her hiring. "I look forward to aiding in the tradition of success for these student-athletes on and off the field and taking this next step in my professional career with the Buckeye family."

A winner on every level, Venechanos has been a part of four NCAA titles (as a player and coach) and a total of eight conference championships. She replaced Sue Stimmel, who resigned from her position in May as the only previous head coach in Buckeye program history.

"We are pleased to welcome Alexis into the Ohio State family as the next head coach of our women's lacrosse program," Smith said. "She has been successful at every level of her career and has demonstrated her ability to help a program reach its full potential, while developing student-athletes as both players and people."

Venechanos inherited a UMass program in August 2006 that had not been to the NCAA tournament in over 20 years and within three seasons, took the Minute-women back to the postseason for the first time in a quarter century. They went on to make a second-consecutive NCAA trip in 2010, punctuating a career already marked by a pair of Atlantic 10 championship tournament titles (2009, 2010), an Atlantic 10 regular-season title (2009) and three appearances in the A-10 Tournament championship game.

In all, Venechanos registered an overall record of 36-38, including double-digit wins in each of the last two years, an Atlantic 10 regular-season record of 18-10 and an A-10 tournament record of 5-1.

Prior to taking over the program at UMass, Venechanos served as the first assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Northwestern for the 2004-06 seasons, helping the Wildcats to the first two of five-consecutive national championships. They posted a 56-4 record during that span, winning 93 percent of their games, including a 41-1 record in her last two years.

Venechanos primarily mentored the goalies and defense at Northwestern, placing the defensive unit among the nation's best. In her final season in 2006, the Wildcats led the nation in scoring margin and were in the Top 5 in scoring defense, all with a rookie goalie. In the undefeated season of 2005, Venechanos tutored NU goalkeeper Ashley Gersuk as she posted the NCAA-best GAA and earned ALC Goalie of the Year honors, while helping the team become the top scoring defense and hold the largest scoring margin in the nation.

As a player, Venechanos was an All-America goalie at the University of Maryland, the winningest women's lacrosse program of all-time, where she captured two national championships in 2000 and 2001. The Terps went 73-15, an 83 percent win mark, during her four seasons in College Park, including a 23-0 mark in 2001, Venechanos' first as starting goalie.

As a senior captain in 2003, Venechanos was the recipient of the Ensign C. Markland Kelly Award, given to the nation's top goalkeeper. She also was a consensus first team All-American, as well as first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and ACC Tournament MVP. Despite playing the second half of the season with a torn ACL, Venechanos posted 164 saves vs. 121 goals allowed and was in the Top 10 nationally in both save percentage (.575) and goals-against average (6.62).

The 32-year old Venechanos is a native of Yorktown, N.Y. where she was a three-sport athlete at Yorktown High School in lacrosse, basketball and soccer. She holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Maryland.

CHRISTY FINCH ASSISTANT COACH FOURTH SEASON, NORTHWESTERN '08

Christy Finch is in her fourth season as assistant coach with the women's lacrosse program in 2013-14 after joining Alexis Venechanos' staff in August 2010. A native of Hudson, Ohio, she joined the Buckeyes after one season as assistant coach at Cincinnati following her playing career at Northwestern, where she was coached by Venechanos her first two seasons.

A four-time national champion with the Wildcats, Finch was named the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLC) Defensive Player of the Year and an All-America selection in 2007 and 2008.

As a senior in 2008, Finch led the nation in caused turnovers with 70 and was honored as a Tewaaraton Trophy finalist, Defender of the Year by Inside Lacrosse, Womenslacrosse.com and WomensLax.com. The defender was also named Northwestern's female recipient of the Big Ten's Outstanding Sportsmanship Award.

"It was a pleasure coaching Christy at Northwestern," Venechanos, said. "Her experience of winning four national championships, while earning All-America honors and being named Defender of the Year will enhance the program. She is recognized as one of the top players to come of the state of Ohio and I am looking forward to her guidance in recruiting in state prospects."

For her career, Finch caused 183 turnovers, ranking fourth all-time in the NCAA record books and was part of a Wildcat senior class which finished their careers with an overall record of 83-3 (.965), including a 43-0 record at home and four national championships. She graduated in the spring of 2008 with a degree in communication studies and a minor in business institutions.

GABBY CAPUZZI ASSISTANT COACH FIRST SEASON, OHIO STATE '12

Gabby Capuzzi, a former All-American on the Ohio State women's lacrosse team, has been named an assistant coach, Buckeye head coach Alexis Venechanos announced in August 2013. Capuzzi wrapped up her career in 2012 as one of the most successful midfielders in program history and spent last season as a volunteer assistant.

"I am thrilled to welcome Gabby as our new assistant coach," Venechanos said. "Her work last year as our volunteer coach was invaluable to the athletes, program and the coaching staff. She is a very hard worker and has a bright coaching career ahead of her. Gabby possesses strong character and understands the Buckeye tradition, qualities which are vital in her becoming a strong role model for our current and future Buckeyes."

Capuzzi will work primarily with the offense, in addition to various administrative and recruiting duties. While assisting with the offense last season, she mentored Jackie Cifarelli, who led the Buckeyes in total points (65) and assists (47), the latter of which was second in the ALC and in the Top 10 of the NCAA throughout the season. Capuzzi also was crucial in helping Katie Chase break the program record she previously held for single-season draw controls with 76.

"I am beyond excited to continue my coaching career with the Ohio State women's lacrosse program and remain a part of the Buckeye family," Capuzzi said. "I am very grateful to have had the opportunity to play under and coach alongside Alexis [Venechanos] and Christy [Finch] over the past three years. I am looking forward to working with the team in competing at the national level and achieving our goals."

As a player, Capuzzi lettered from 2009-12 and was a Second Team All-American and First Team All-ALC honoree in her final season wearing the Scarlet & Gray. She led the team with 42 goals, 52 draw controls, 38 ground balls and 31 caused turnovers last season and is the OSU record holder for career draws (166) after tying the single-season draw record in 2012 and owning two of the Top 3 positions.

The Broomhall, Pa., native graduated from Ohio State in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in communications and is halfway through an online sports management and leadership graduate program through Duquesne.

EMILY BOERGER VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT FIRST SEASON, URBANA '13

Alexis Venechanos, head coach of the Ohio State women's lacrosse team, announced two additions to her staff Wednesday. Nora Boerger has been hired as a coordinator of performance analysis, while Emily Boerger will serve as a volunteer assistant coach. The twin sisters wrapped up playing careers at Division II Urbana last season and are familiar with the Buckeye program through working several camps.

"I am very thrilled to add two more members to the coaching staff," Venechanos, who enters her fourth season at Ohio State in 2013-14, said. "Both Emily and Nora have a strong drive and desire for the sport. Nora's position as coordinator of performance analysis is a very cutting edge and vital role for the program as we continue to maximize technology to the fullest. Emily's strong work ethic and knowledge of the game will be a great addition to the staff both on and off the field. Both are a great fit for the program."

As the coordinator for performance analysis, Nora will provide oversight and management for all aspects of the sports video operations for the team, including film exchange, video capture, editing, production and equipment maintenance. A team captain in 2013, Nora started 13 of 14 games in her senior season, finishing second on the team with 22 goals, nine assists, 36 groundballs and 37 draw controls. She was the team leader in caused turnovers as a midfielder, tallying 24. Nora graduated with a degree in exercise science as an honor roll and Academic All-GLIAC selection.

Emily will step into the role of volunteer assistant coach, vacated by Gabby Capuzzi when she was promoted to a full-time assistant earlier this summer. A first-team all-conference selection on attack, Emily set school records in for points (52), goals (50) and goals per game (3.85) during her senior campaign in 2013. She finished seventh in the country in NCAA Division II in goals per game and left Urbana as the all-time leader in points (121), goals (114), shots (276) and game-winning goals (3). Emily graduated with a degree in exercise science.

Prior to their time at Urbana, the duo played lacrosse and basketball at Fairbanks High School in Milford Center, Ohio.
